

Norfolk only one run was scored against him. He went in the first inning and was hit by a ball. A base on balls. Three runs, singles and a three-bagger were scored off his delivery in a short while. In fact, in the first inning twelve runs were scored. Six runs were the consequence. It was not because the pitcher had pitched the other game, but because the opposing pitcher just had a batting streak.

Cassidy Did Good Work.
Cassidy pitched him in the second, and only two runs were scored off him. Cassidy pitched him in the second, and only two runs were scored off him. Cassidy pitched him in the second, and only two runs were scored off him.

A pretty audience gathered in this hall. The first was a very large one, and the first was a very large one, and the first was a very large one, and the first was a very large one, and the first was a very large one.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM IN SECOND GAME

With the Score Standing Eight to Five Against Local Batting Streak Followed.

Not too long ago, the Colonels won the first game, the Colonels won the first game, the Colonels won the first game, the Colonels won the first game, the Colonels won the first game.

makers got revenge, and got sweet revenge at that. The pitcher came out, when the grandstand wanted a taste of it. The ninth inning had come. Cassidy went in to do the honors after Bill came out, and he held them all right until the fifth inning, when he allowed three hits and a run. One hit, an error and a walk hit gave another run in the sixth. This made the visitors take it easy with the eight runs to their credit. Richmond got two twice and one once.

That ninth inning started like this: Bovey flew out to third and Shieber pitched. He went to second on Hinton's out first second to first. Then he stole third base. Hovey walked and Cassidy pitched. Hovey went in to hit for Cassidy and singled, and Cassidy came in with the run that tied the score. Bill the base were full. Brown walked to the plate and today that defeated everything. Hovey was hit and Cassidy pitched. After an attempt was made to get it, for one run was enough to win the game. Never has there been such great excitement as was at this time.
